

Aon Hewitt Ltd and Temple Group are pleased to present a full-day seminar, entitled 'The New Pension Landscape – Making It Work!' which will lay particular emphasis on the new legislation and its accompanying rules.

Seminar overview:

A decade-long process has finally come to fruition! The Private Pension Schemes Act is expected to bring greater transparency into the pensions sector. Our collective endeavour is to provide you with practical insight into the workings of the law and respond to your growing concerns.

Speakers:

All our speakers are experts in their respective fields with a solid track record in dealing with these issues. You will hear from:

- Bernard Yen, Aneesha Seesurrun & Imrith Ramtohol from Aon Hewitt Ltd.
- Urmila Boolell and Latasha Jugroo-Bissessur from Banymandhub- Boolell Chambers of Temple Group.

Who should attend?

Employees of management companies, investment companies, insurance companies, trustees or members of management committees / investment committees, Human Resource personnel, payroll / finance personnel and other interested parties are presented with an exclusive opportunity to remain up-to-date with the new pension legislation.

Seminar objectives:

This course is intended to address:

- the legal framework surrounding private pension schemes,
- the different types of pensions and their salient features,
- the application of the law to day-to-day business activities and best practice applicable to pension schemes,
- the impact of the Private Pension Schemes Act on pension schemes; and
- the key aspects of the FSC Rules and potential implications to pension schemes in Mauritius.

Seminar delivery:

The course is designed to be interactive and flexible to accommodate spontaneous question and answer sessions. There shall be an hour long panel discussion where the experts shall be giving their opinion.

Please note that this seminar is an MQA - approved event and is valid for CPD points
